

BOOKMARK - Chapters 1-7

1. Two probing questions:

a.

b.

2. Two literary techniques you noticed.

a.

b.

3. Connections you made:

a. Text-to-Text: This reminds me of...

b. Text-to-Self: I experienced something similar when...

c. Text-to-World: This relates to the current or historical event...

BOOKMARK - Chapters 1-7

1. Two probing questions:

a.

b.

2. Two literary techniques you noticed.

a.

b.

3. Connections you made:

a. Text-to-Text: This reminds me of...

b. Text-to-Self: I experienced something similar when...

c. Text-to-World: This relates to the current or historical event...

BOOKMARK - Chapters 1-7

1. Two probing questions:

a.

b.

2. Two literary techniques you noticed.

a.

b.

3. Connections you made:

a. Text-to-Text: This reminds me of...

b. Text-to-Self: I experienced something similar when...

c. Text-to-World: This relates to the current or historical event...

4. Two quotes that you thought were powerful or interesting:

a.

b.

5. One prediction about what might happen in the future.

Reading Questions (Make Inferences):

6. How would you describe the town of Maycomb?

7. What values or beliefs does Scout's teacher represent in the story?

8. Why are the children enamored by Boo Radley? What ideas do you think Boo symbolizes in the story?

4. Two quotes that you thought were powerful or interesting:

a.

b.

5. One prediction about what might happen in the future.

Reading Questions (Make Inferences):

6. How would you describe the town of Maycomb?

7. What values or beliefs does Scout's teacher represent in the story?

8. Why are the children enamored by Boo Radley? What ideas do you think Boo symbolizes in the story?

4. Two quotes that you thought were powerful or interesting:

a.

b.

5. One prediction about what might happen in the future.

Reading Questions (Make Inferences):

6. How would you describe the town of Maycomb?

7. What values or beliefs does Scout's teacher represent in the story?

8. Why are the children enamored by Boo Radley? What ideas do you think Boo symbolizes in the story?