

BOOKMARK - Chapters 17-22

1. Three probing questions:

a.

b.

c.

2. Example of ONE literary devices.

a.

3. Connections you made:

a. Text-to-Text: This reminds me of...

b. Text-to-Self: I experienced something similar when...

c. Text-to-World: This relates to the current or historical event....

BOOKMARK - Chapters 17-22

1. Three probing questions:

a.

b.

c.

2. Example of ONE literary devices.

a.

3. Connections you made:

a. Text-to-Text: This reminds me of...

b. Text-to-Self: I experienced something similar when...

c. Text-to-World: This relates to the current or historical event....

BOOKMARK - Chapters 17-22

1. Three probing questions:

a.

b.

c.

2. Example of ONE literary devices.

a.

3. Connections you made:

a. Text-to-Text: This reminds me of...

b. Text-to-Self: I experienced something similar when...

c. Text-to-World: This relates to the current or historical event....

4. Two quotes that you thought were powerful or interesting:

a.

b.

5. One prediction about what might happen in the future.

Reading Questions (Make Inferences):

6. Why does it cause such a reaction when Tom says he felt sorry for Mayella?

7. What big ideas does Mr. Dolphus Raymond symbolize?

8. How does the trial change the children? Connect to the idea of innocence and the symbol of the mockingbird.

4. Two quotes that you thought were powerful or interesting:

a.

b.

5. One prediction about what might happen in the future.

Reading Questions (Make Inferences):

6. Why does it cause such a reaction when Tom says he felt sorry for Mayella?

7. What big ideas does Mr. Dolphus Raymond symbolize?

8. How does the trial change the children? Connect to the idea of innocence and the symbol of the mockingbird.

4. Two quotes that you thought were powerful or interesting:

a.

b.

5. One prediction about what might happen in the future.

Reading Questions (Make Inferences):

6. Why does it cause such a reaction when Tom says he felt sorry for Mayella?

7. What big ideas does Mr. Dolphus Raymond symbolize?

8. How does the trial change the children? Connect to the idea of innocence and the symbol of the mockingbird.